...Blake has been Mayor of Davis ...is a popular and efficient officer. ...a director in the Davis Hardware ...a member of the Board of Education and president of the City Board of Trade. He practically owns and controls the Davis Publishing Co. as secretary and treasurer. He was the promoter and organizer of this company and the knowledge he acquired years ago in the printing and publishing business while in this town serves him to good purpose in his newspaper venture there. The Davis Republican, as the name indicates, is Republican in politics and is the Republican organ of Tucker County which since the establishing of this paper has changed from a Democratic county to a republican. Much credit is due Mr. Blake in his push and newspaper enterprise in bringing about this result. Mr. Blake has many and diversified inte ests in the young city of Davis and he takes an active part in all the public enterprises.

NUMBER 46. NOVEMBER 15, 1895, NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS, MAINE. VOLUME XXVI.

Scott Saunders has shingled his shed.

Dr. Nettie Bennett is to open an office over Wm. C. Leavitt's store.

Allon A. Jordan of Richmond is visiting his mother, Mrs. S. A. Jordan.

Porter Seavey is laying the foundation for a house on his Pearl Street lot.

Ernest Turner has been in Buckfield for a few days, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Turner.

Wm. C. Leavitt has put a new Atlantic range in the basement of his hardware store.

Mrs. H. T. French of Everett, Mass., was in town, several days recently, stopping with her husband.

W. O. Morse of Woburn, Mass., was in town this week to attend his mother's, Mrs. Margaret Morse's, funeral.

Hosea McKay, Hugh McKay and Willis Palmer captured a deer or two on Butters Mountain in Stoneham, last week.

Last week sheriff Bassett found at Deering, the bicycle that was stolen from A. I. Sturtevant at South Paris on June 25, last.

Otis M. Morgan and Otis L. Morgan have moved from the rent over Wm. C. Leavitt's store to the upper tenement in Henry J. Bangs' house on Water Street.

Chas. Bowker of Lynn is in town, visiting his mother. He has been at work for the Nigger Head Lasting Machine Company.

G. W. Hobbs is finishing off the rooms over his store. He will have about ten nice rooms. He intends to occupy some of them and rent others. W. E. Austin is to put in a steam plant to heat building.

The Grand Trunk will change to the winter time table on November 17. There will be two through trains to Montreal this winter instead of one as formerly.

Edwin E. O'Brion and wife of Thomaston have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bickford of the Beal's House. They returned home, last Wednesday, much pleased with their visit to Norway.

The Public Library will soon purchase a few new books. Patrons of the Library are invited to give to some member of the Board titles of books they would like to see purchased.

Fifteen ladies competed for the prize in the driving nail contest at the W. C. T. U. supper and concert at Concert Hall. Mrs. Herbert Robinson won the apron closely followed by Mrs. W. T. Anderson and Mrs. C. F. Ridlon.

H. L. Horne's new house on tannery lot has been in the care of painters, and now shows off handsomely in pea-green ith white trimmings. It has been plumbed for hot and cold water. A bathroom was put in next the kitchen. Contractor Pike is busy putting on finish, etc.

We notice that Dr. J. C. Gallispn returned from his visit in this section just in season to accept the Republican nomination as candidate for the Legislature in the 8th or Norfolk district. As the republicans had about everything in Massachusetts, this year, we presume he was elected.

When Mel Sampson sold out the barber shop, among its equipments was the fine engraving of the grayhound, Topsy, which he used to own. This went with the shop and lovers of hunting may still feast their eyes on the beautiful head of a dog with sharp nose and equally sharp eyes.

The meeting of the Y. P. C. U. at Concert Hall, last Sunday evening, was very largely attended. Elinor Hunt was the leader, very ably discussed the subject "Zeal." Quotations and singing followed. That the interest in the Union is increasing, is proved by the fact that the membership is rapidly multiplying. The subject for next Sunday evening is "Right Conversation." We hope to welcome a large number.

The two houses on Whitman Street that C. B. Cummings & Sons are building will soon be completed. The single house is all plastered and the second floors laid. It is a pretty cottage of six rooms. The double house is plastered throughout. There are in each rent two rooms on the first floor and three chambers on the second.

Wednesday noon, C. E. Dunn's horse was in the depot yard attached to a hayrack loaded high with empty flour barrels. The bridle was removed in order to give him a dinner, but the horse became frightened, started out of the yard and turned to follow Cottage Street. Getting on the meadow he dropped his head and commenced feeding. It was amazing, the way those barrels spread over the ground when he turned the corner.

The village schools will close in three weeks more. Thus far, this has been a successful term and work in the schools is now progressing finely. In the main room of the high school there is a large table covered with late magazines and it is well patronized. The high school library now numbers about 150 volumes and the scholars are working to raise funds for enlarging it. Miss Richardson gives the high school girls regular training in athletics. The boys have been playing football, but will do athletic work at the school, next term.

The rifle practise season for the Maine National Guard closed Oct. 31. This season, Company D qualified 54 men, (the largest number in the Company's history) 3 sharpshooters, 2 first-class marksmen, 39 second-class marksmen, and 10 third-class marksmen. This is a standing that but few companies in the State equal, and Capt. Stiles does well to be proud of his men. Much credit for this standing is due to Sergeant F. T. Bartlett, Company Inspector of Rifle Practise. Lieut. B. P. Adkins holds the Company badge for the year.

"From Eden to Eden," the great illustrated Bible Panorama, by Rev. J. E. Cross of Pittsfield, Mass., at the Baptist church, the evenings of Nov. 20, 21, 22 and 24. It will be illustrated by 350 very fine colored views that Mr. Cross has been four years painting and arranging. He unfolds 6,000 years of Bible history linking the whole Bible together from Genesis to Revelation. It is said to be worth more than years of study. It is strictly undenominational. Tickets for the four lectures only 50 cents, or 15 cents each evening. Rev. Mr. Cross is a brother of our townsman, Thaddeus Cross, and is visiting him.

The remains of Mrs. Jennie B. Simonds of Syracuse, N. Y., were brought here, Tuesday, for interment. She was a daughter of the late Dr. Willard C. George of Norway, and was buried beside her father and sister in Pine Grove Cemetery. She was a niece of Mrs. Edwin W. Howe, who lives in this village. Elgin A. Simonds, her husband, and H. P. Aldrich and wife of Somerville, Mass., and Dr. Fred E. Crockett and wife of West Newton, Mass., the wives sisters of the deceased, were the immediate family who accompanied the remains. Funeral services took place at West Newton, Mass., November 12th, at Dr. Crockett's. Prayer at the grave.

Harry Wills was motor-man on the N. & P. Electrics during fair and for a short time afterwards. He stopped work and bought a horse of Vern Webber and paid $5.00 down and the balance to be paid on installments of $5.00 per month. He borrowed or hired a wagon of John Haselton, at Cummings' stable, and then vanished from town. He could not be found. Diligent search has been made. Haselton almost concluded that John was out a banner wagon and Webber the balance due on his horse. Four weeks and more of hopeful watching passed and in the evening-tide after dark last Monday, the recreant Wills was seen to enter the village driving a different horse than the one he got of Webber but he had Cummings' banner wagon. Haselton was soon informed and he sailed down and took the wagon, while Webber called round and got $5.00 on his horse, which Mr. Wills said he left in Greenwood, where he had been stopping and had borrowed the horse he had with him. The N. & P. Electric Co. owed Wills a little money but an attachment or something in favor of John Cummings was on and he couldn't get it. Many good promises were made and the matter rests.

The Inspecting Officer will visit Harry Rust Post this (Friday) evening, Nov. 15.

Will Marston is building a henery on his lot of land.

Fox and Wheeler spent the day, Tuesday, deer hunting with lots of sport.

The N. E. O. P. will hold their meeting next week Thursday instead of Wednesday.

Saturday we had a good soaking rain. Let us hope that "still there's more to follow."

Mrs. L. B. Weed of West Dummerston, Vt., is stopping in town, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Bolster.

Mrs. Margaret Morse died Tuesday. She had been sick several weeks and failed gradually till death came. She was formerly f Andover, Mass., where her remains were taken for interment.

"From Eden to Eden" commences Wednesday, Nov. 20th, at the Baptist church, and continues four evenings. The first evening will be illustrated by 88 views from chaos to Joseph on the throne of Egypt.

The Oxford County Shoe Store has two perfectly made rubber boots in one of their show windows. Gulliver would probably recognize them both. One was made for the King of Brobdingnag and the other for a prince of Lilliput.

F. W. Hunt, the agent of the White Sewing Machine, has leased a part of his store in the Hathaway Block to Mrs. W. E. Knight, who has opened dressmaking rooms there and will also sell fancy goods and ladies' and children's underwear.

Badly prepared and misapplied advertising is pretty near a dead loss. Judicious advertising is certainly successful. Is yours that kind? If not, why not make it so. Why not try?

We have had some experience in preparing advertising and can sometimes make a good suggestion. If we can be of help to you in making your advertising pay we will gladly do it. Call on us and lets talk the matter over. "Consultation free."

Alonzo Brickett of Waterford is visiting his friends in Norway.

The present is a good time to agitate our need of police. Few villages the size of ours are without several watchmen on the streets during the hours of darkness.

Stone & Bartlett are fixing up the studio. The underpinning has been repaired and skylight thoroughly renovated. New curtains have been added to the camera room. The interior is to be painted and repapered.

The Mercy and Help Department of the Epworth League will give a supper at the vestry of the M. E. church, Wednesday evening, Nov. 20th, from 6 to 7.30 p. m. The proceeds are to go to help carry on the work of mercy and help in this community.

All ladies of the Cong'l church and parish are expected, without further notice, to appear in costume at the Hard Times Party next Tuesday evening. No doubt there will be a pleasant time. Remember the time and place.

Clarence A. Franklin, who worked on the ADVERTISER last year, is married and settled down to housekeeping in Roxbury, Mass. He has a good position with the J. B. Bird Printing Co. on Beach Street, Boston. Franklin is to visit his Norway friends next summer.

The Portland Telegram of next Sunday will contain a full report of Norway's great event of this week. The Telegram will arrive here at the same time as the Boston papers and can be secured at Noyes drug store and of newsboys.

Allie L. Cook and Louvie P. Swett returned, happy, from their Wild River trip. Allie got two deer, buck and doe, and Louvie shot a big buck. Louvie was so elated that he got up another party to hunt on the same ground with headquarters at Hilton's. They started, Tuesday afternoon, L. P. Swett, J. W. Carter, Merritt Welch, M. W. Sampson and W. H. Booker.

A series of Sunday evening addresses will be given at the Congregational church beginning next Sunday evening if the weather is pleasant. The subject of those addresses will be "Bunyan and his Times." Next Sunday evening a description will be given of the times in which Bunyan lived and wrote. The service will be short. Good singing will be furnished and everybody will be welcome. Free pews in the evening.

Sunday morning, a piece about the size of a silver dollar blew out of the steam pipe in the cellar of F. P. Stone's store, filling the establishment with steam. Timothy Smith was up early and discovering the condition of affairs sent for Mr. Stone. He came down, opened the store and had steam shut off. W. E. Austin was summoned and in an hour the break was repaired and steam making its usual circuit. Damage, except to the steam pipe, was less than a dollar.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 5th, there was a large gathering at the parlors of the Congregational church. Supper was served at the usual hour, after which came the entertainment which consisted of reports from the ladies of how they earned a dollar or more for the organ fund. These reports were made in prose and in poetry. All the poetic genius among the ladies was brought into play and furnished a great deal of amusement. An account was kept as the names were called and the sum raised was announced. Those who have subscribed are also paying in to Mr. Swett the amount subscribed so as to have the subscriptions all in as near the middle of November as convenient. By oversight and absence a few names were not read the evening of the circle. The following is the list as far as obtained. Other names will be given later. Mrs. George Swift, $1.00; Alice Swett, $1; Mrs. McCrillis, $3; Mrs. Nevers, $1; six young ladies, $3; Mrs. Aaron Noble, $1; Mrs. Jennie Cook, $1.

IN MEMORIAM.

It is with sorrow that we announce the departure from this life of Newhall, youngest son of Abner Foster and Harriet Augusta Jackson, whose young life went out on Wednesday, Oct. 23, from his parental home in Norway, at the age of 20 years, 3 months and 9 days. He graduated with highest honors from Norway Liberal Institute, and entered Colby University, with what seemed a future filled with brilliant prospects, when ill health compelled him to abandon his studies for a time and return home, hoping that the pure fresh air of his native hills would restore his health. But alas! the relentless destroyer consumption had too firm a hold of his naturally frail constitution, and despite the united efforts of kind friends and medical skill, exhausted nature yielded after weary months of patient suffering.

SOUTH PARIS.

Last week W. D. Clark killed his pig and the pork tipped the beam at 317 lbs. Hard to beat for a spring pig slaughtered the first of November

C. L. Harris spent Sunday at Mechanic Falls. During his absence the studio kitten got among the cabinets in his show window and brought chaos out of order in a short time. Mr. Harris had been to much pains in arranging an artistic display of his work and didn't enjoy doing it over. We saw the pictures and their arrangement when first put in the window and both reflect credit on our photographer's artistic taste and technical skill. Evidently the time he worked in one of Portland's best studios was not misspent.

George A. Wilson, jr., came home from his studies at Colby University and spent Sunday.

Judge George A. Wilson is visited by his sister, Mrs. W. E. Brooks of Chicago, and daughter, Ida.

Tuesday and Wednesday our hardware merchants had a brisk trade in door and window fastenings.

A. W. Walker has the frame up for his new icehouse.

J. C. Matheson has retired from his position as section foreman on the G. T. R. R. Charles Walker who has had charge of the Shelburne section for several years, takes his place, and has moved his family into Thede Trayer's rent on Pleasant Street. Mr. Walker has the reputation of keeping his section in as good condition as any foreman on the line and we hope he will live up to that reputation while in charge at South Paris.

Monday, while working on Benjamin Y. Russell's store, George W. Cook stepped backward through the scuttle and fell to the collar bottom. No bones were broken but he was thoroughly shaken and somewhat scratched.

The Sunday School convention at the Methodist church, Wednesday, was well attended by delegates from towns along the Grand Trunk R. R. from Mechanic Falls to the state line. Four denominations, Methodist, Congregationalist, Baptist and Free Baptist. A new association was formed, to be known as the Little Androscoggin Sunday School Association and includes Sunday schools along the Grand Trunk from Berlin to Oxford, Mrs. Z. J. Wheeler of West Paris is secretary. The feature of the convention was the Sunday school symposium, consisting of remarks from superintendents and pastors about grading and discipline. No school in the association is graded, and Rev. A. Hamilton's remarks on the system used in the Wesley church at Bath were listened to with much interest. He told of a regular system of examinations and promotions and said the Sunday school prospered by it. The discussion of discipline was full of modern ideas and remarks Millett, field secretary of the State association, gave a talk on general work and using last Sunday's lesson outlined his method of handling a topic in the school. on the subject were welcome. Rev. Caroline E. Angell, pastor of the Norway Universalist church, Rev. T. F.

The schools in Andover begin Nov. 18, The following are the teachers No. 1, High School, Lena Abbott; Primary, Julia P. Morton; No. 2, E. E. Morse; No. 3, Mrs. Amy Trask; No. 4, Annie Cutting; No. 5, Annie Learned.

Persons notifying Milton Penley of cases of cruelty to animals or of poor half-fed horses or other animals should always sign their names to their letters as their names will not be published or told of and anonymous letters will receive no notice. Last week Agent Penley was notified of several cases of cruelty of leaving old horses out in the snow without food or shelter. The general public are not aware of the strictness of the laws in this regard. Horses that are old and poor are not in a condition to labor and should be killed in a merciful way and not left to suffer and compelled to haul unsuitable loads, and every creature should be well treated and properly sheltered and fed. Any person having knowledge of any such cases of cruelty should notify Mr. Penley, who is a qualified agent for the prevention of cruelty, appointed by the Governor of Maine.

The Journal is responsible for the following:—A mammoth white moose was shot by Mr. Sargent in Grafton on the north of Saddleback mountain. When dressed it weighed 651 pounds. It was the first of the color ever known to exist in Maine.

Abial Chandler, jr., informs us that the Alpine House will be closed for the winter owing to the ill health of Mrs. Chandler. She will live with her sister, Mrs. Hodsdon, and Mr. C. will canvass for Mason & Hamlin's organs. He thinks his house may be run another summer by Hannibal Grover and wife, late of the Elms Hotel.

Leonard Leavitt, our Sunday river hunter, killed two good bears last week. They had fine glossy pelts.

We would suggest that a certain young lady change the color of the feather in her hat so that her young gentleman may not make a mistake and wait on some other lady home from evening meeting.

Annie Gross is the new president of the Columbian Club.

Mrs. Abigail Holt passed away very suddenly, last Friday, leaving a husband, five sons and five daughters to mourn. She was 78 years had been married 56 years. Rev. F. E. Barton officiated at the funeral which was held in the house, Tuesday morning.

There is talk of an operetta by local talent in the near future.

Miss Scribner of Gould Academy is sick and unable to teach, this week.

Herbert Jordan is having a vacation from his work in G. P. Bean's store.

F. H. Young is on the road for the Bethel Chair Co.

William Perkins of Paris has been visiting at A. A. Parker's.

Tom Hastings has been to Lancaster, N. H., visiting his brother, Hon. M. W. Hastings.

Frank Coffin of Milford, Mass., is visiting friends in Bethel.

State Detective C. M. Wormell and wife are visiting in Boston.

Mrs. T. J. Foster has been visiting at Albert Copeland's in South Bethel.

Schools close, this week.

Prof. G. A. Robertson of Augusta is visiting his father, Sylvester Robertson.

The officers of Helping Hand Lodge, No. 277, I. O. G. T., for the quarter ending Jan. 31, 1896, are:

GROVER HILL.—The fall term of school in this district closes Friday. Ida M. Haselton has labored hard for the interest of her pupils. We think the school is in a good condition.

Gus. Grover is cutting spruce on the Wheeler lot.

Mrs. O. M. Mason visited this school Monday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Peaslee visited a sick friend at North Woodstock, recently.

L. A. Sawin of South Albany was in town last Sunday.

A young man from the firm of E. C. Stephenson, Portland, was in town recently buying poultry.

W. M. Brown has bought two cows and added to his dairy.

Jennie Maybrey has built a hennery for the accommodation of her poultry.

NORTH-WEST BETHEL.

Amy Bean's house is resplendent in its new coat of paint, white ground work and brown trimmings.

Jack Downie, Rob Stearns, Alton Verrill and Jim Tyler are all at work in the woods for Mr. Barrows.

Frank Brown is improving the looks of his lawn very much by grading and removing a lot of rocks and brush from near the lower end of his buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Verrill went to Whitefield, N. H., the 8th inst. to visit Miss Verrill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Dow, of that place.

Ruth Isabel Mason, little daughter of Seth Mason, has been quite sick for some days, but is improving at this writing.

Mrs. Martha Baldwin Chapman is at Stratford, N. H., visiting relatives.

Elmer Stearns has bought a lot of land back on the mountain, near Pine Hill, of Leslie L. Mason.

Maude Mills Merrow of West Bethel closed her seventh successful term of school in this district Nov. 1.

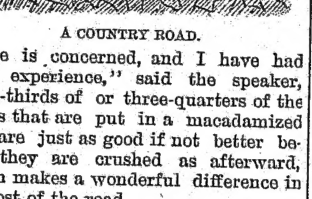
Lester Leforest Mason, Ben. Wright Stearns and Ella Francina Skillings were present every day during the entire term. Lester L. Mason was not tardy or dismissed at all, and Ella F. Skillings is only five years of age, so we think her record quite a good one. Adelmer Stearns, average rank was the best being 98 per cent. Miss Merrow, is deservedly popular as a teacher and is acknowledged by all to be one of the best in town, she has spent some time at a Normal School in Masschusetts, and her methods of teaching are excellent. Her experience as a teacher combined with her pleasing addressed in the school-room, make her second to none in her vocation.

ROAD FOUNDATIONS.

The Telford System Preferred In Some Localities to the Macadam.

A question open to discussion and one which interests all localities where field stones or quarry spawls are abundant is whether it is important to crush all the stones that are put into the road. Roy Stone, in his book, "New Roads and Road Laws In the United States," quotes the following from the report of the meeting of the Connecticut board of agriculture:

Mr. Perry of Worcester said that he thought it wholly unnecessary to crush all the stones. "As far as my experience is concerned, and I have had some experience," said the speaker, "two-thirds of or three-quarters of the stones that are put in a macadamized road are just as good if not better before they are crushed as afterward, which makes a wonderful difference in the cost of the road.



A COUNTRY ROAD.

"It costs a great deal to carry stone to the stone crusher, crush it and then carry this stone back from one to five miles. Suppose you want to improve a highway and macadamize it. In our section we have lots of stone. The farmers want to get rid of it. You can readily see that it costs but little to build macadamized roads if you build them without crushing more than one-quarter of the material. I think on the average it would cost no more than half as much, and when you have done it you have just as good a road as if you had crushed all the stone.

"My idea of macadamized road is that it ought not to cost more than $1,000, to $2,000 per mile. When you put $5,000 into a mile of road, you have got too much money there and too little somewhere else. On the farms about here there are thousands of loads of stone. Some of it you want to get rid of. When you have a load of stone of any shape, bring it to the road that you want to macadamize, let somebody be there to take care of it, and when you have got your stone laid in good shape put a layer of crushed stone on top, and if you put on good gravel and perhaps a little clay to make it heavy I will guarantee that you will have as good a road as can be made with all crushed stone and at not more than half the cost."

WANT A ROAD TAX IMPOSED.

Good Public Highways Cost Money, but They Are Worth the Outlay.

The question of good roads is being actively agitated in Warren county, as in almost every other county in Kentucky, for that matter, and the citizens have about come to the common sense conclusion that the only way to secure good roads is to levy a tax and build them. The Park City (Ky.) Times says:

"Some of the heaviest taxpayers of the county were present at the recent meeting at the courthouse and made speeches advocating the levying of a tax by the fiscal court for the betterment of our public roads. These men know what it is to pay taxes, and while they are as much opposed to the needless increase of taxation as anybody they recognize the fact that we can never have good roads except through a road tax, and in order to get them they are willing to pay it. In advocating this road tax they not only show good common sense, but a commendable public spirit. They stated in their speeches that taxation was to be deplored, but that it is often necessary and in the matter of securing better highways absolutely indispensable. Long years of experience with the present system of road working has demonstrated the fact that it is absolutely worthless, and only those communities and states have good roads which keep them up by taxation. Let us have a tax."

Why Our Roads Are Bad.

Governor Fuller of Vermont did not exaggerate when he said at the national good roads conference that "this country has the poorest roads the world has ever seen, with the possible exception of the Sahara desert." They are bad because they are not constructed upon scientific principles nor maintained by intelligent supervision. The only way to reform the shiftless and costly old district or "pathmaster" plan, under which there are as many kinds of bad roads in a county as there are districts, is to show to farmers and villagers alike that good roads are not only comfortable, but economical, and then give them object lessons in right road construction and its results.—New York World.

To Preserve Hill Roads.

Gradeways and ditches should be continuous over elevations or hills; in fact, on long hills the roadway should be more than usually crowning that the rainfall should be drawn sharply to the side rather than follow the ruts or wagon tracks, there washing out thin mud, which, with all the water falling on the entire face of the hill, is finally deposited on the face of the roadway at the base of the hill, there to remain, too much mud to run off, too much water to dry up, while every loaded team coming down the hill digs up the softened mass, which with every rain grows deeper.—Selected.

... Why Not?

Apropos of ... Crawford's remark about our un...ched butlers, that they amused him after the shorn ones of England, why won't somebody say that our butlers—our American butlers—wear mustaches, and we, when abroad, find it amusing to see the English butlers smooth shaven, and wonder why their masters do not insist that their mouths be covered. Will the time ever come when we will dare to be Americans?

There are great lessons to be learned from the older nations of the world, great models to be studied and wisdom to be got from the experience which is the accretion of centuries, concerning which the taste of one cultivated community is as good as that of any other.

Burglars' Carnival.

Oxford Fore Street was the scene of a series of depredations, last Sunday night. Mrs. Ed. Winslow heard some one down stairs and called to her brother, Frank Wilson, who arose to search for the cause of the disturbance. Frank did not find the robber who made away with some change, also a loaf of bread and a pan of milk.

His near neighbor, Newell Warren, found his doors unfastened in the morning.

We heard the E. E. Twitchell place was entered.

The lock was broken to the school-house door, a fire built, seats arranged for a bed and things generally overhauled.

J. G. Rowe saw a light and thinking some one was sick and his daughter-in-law had come down stairs for medicine, he called her name when the light immediately disappeared. In the morning they found the door open on to the piazza, which Mrs. Rowe said she had locked. The visitor evidently left in such haste that he forgot it was cold weather. The call came to such an abrupt end that nothing was missed by reason of it.

At Ira Harriman's their appetites and success seemed to have achieved t eir height. Their efforts seemed to be confined to the pantry where they secured and made off with two loaves of bread, two half-pound balls of butter and two apple pies plates and all. Mrs. H. says "if they want her to make them any more pies she hopes they will kindly return the plates." They unlocked the front door, managing some way to turn the key, passed through hall, dining-room and kitchen to the pantry and returned, disturbing no one unless it was the baby. Ira says, if he had been up he would have passed them the doughnuts, cookies, etc., to go with the rest. It is a pity there had not been one good dog to have sampled them.

When Irving Bean, who works in the mill for Partridge Bros. at Norway Lake, started a little before nine o'clock to go to James Crockett's, his boarding place, on Monday night, on approaching the school-house he discovered a light in the shed. He came back and notified several citizens of the village who advanced towards the house in battle array with skirmishers thrown out and the enemy, four in number, retreated precipitantly going west throwing away in their flight one day's rations consisting of bread and beef. No doubt they being driven away saved some of our houses or stores from burglary that night.

Monday night, Vern Webber had a barrel of new cider just outside his back door. Wednesday morning he went to move it down cellar and the barrel was found to be empty.

Monday night, a gang operated in the South Paris post-office. An alarm was given by N. Dayton Bolster, who lives next to the office. About 1 o'clock, Gertie Allen, who occupies the upper chamber, was awakened by heavy pounding, which was followed by an explosion. She aroused Mr. Bolster, who looking out saw a man slowly pacing the sidewalk and looking carefully around. Another explosion was heard and he was able to locate it in the post-office. He aroused postmaster Farrar, who lives in the adjoining house and a volunteer posse was soon on the spot, but the burglars had left. Meantime there was another explosion. When the citizens entered the post-office, it was found that the front door had been pried open with a crowbar, a sledge-hammer and several other burglars' tools were lying around, and the curtains were all closely drawn. The money drawer by the delivery window had been rifled. The safe had been drilled near the combination and the drill broken in the safe. The combination was blown inside. The safe was tipped over and the bolts rattled back of their own weight. Its contents were thoroughly smoked and a pocket-book set on fire and money that it contained scorched. How much they secured is a sum that postmaster Farrar has not reckoned up, but they would have found a prize in postage stamps, etc., if they had gotten at the safe's contents.

Tuesday morning when Mrs. Edwin W. Howe, who lives on corner of Bridge and Orchard Streets, arose, she discovered that things in the lower story of the house were topsy-turvy. Her daughter, Mrs. Emma Mann, said it was the work of burglars, and so it proved. Investigation showed that a chair usually kept on the piazza was beneath the back shed window and the window had been forced. From the shed the intruders had entered the kitchen, lighted a candle and then gone around about as they pleased in the lower part of the house. Food was taken and eaten in the pantry. A gold watch that Mrs. Howe prized because it was given her by a sister now dead was missing from a bureau drawer in the sitting-room. A satchel that is kept on the mantel in Mrs. Howe's sleeping room was under the kitchen stove together with a lot of other articles that were never there before. Between three and four dollars in money had disappeared. Silver-ware and a pair of gold-bowed spectacles on the table had not been disturbed. It seems that Mrs. Mann was up late, Monday night, and didn't go to sleep till past 12 o'clock. Mrs. Howe was awakened shortly before 3 o'clock by a noise, but supposed the children made it, and did not go to sleep again.

Shortly after 1 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the nurse at F. P. Stone's fed the baby. At that time she heard the stairs creak as though some one was on them, but supposed it was Mrs. Stone's brother, H. T. French. A few minutes later, or about half-past one she went down stairs and found the door that leads from kitchen to stairway locked, something very unusual. Going into kitchen, via the hall she noticed nothing wrong and went up-stairs again. In the morning none of the household's inmates would admit locking the door. Stepping on back piazza, Mr. Stone discovered that something was wrong and looking around saw that a kitchen window had been pried open and shut again. A pair of shoemaker's pincers were hanging in the hammock. These have been identified as belonging to Mrs. Edwin Howe, whose residence across the street was burglarized that night.

Tuesday morning, C. A. Pride and wife who live on corner of Cottage and Pearl Streets, discovered that while they slept, strangers had been in the house and liberally entertained themselves. The side door on Pearl Street and door from rear hall to kitchen were unfastened and their keys had plainly been turned by pincers from without. From the pantry Mrs. Pride missed a loaf of brown bread, nearly two loaves of white bread, several pies, a large amount of cold meat, pound of butter and some dishes. A bail basket that held kindlings for the morning had been emptied and was gone, as also a cloth that the miscreants probably used for a cover to the basket. A lot of bread crumbs and dish which had been nearly full of milk were beside the back door. No valuables have been missed but a hair brush that had been beside a mirror was carried off. About 4 o'clock neighbors saw a light moving in the sitting-room, but supposed the family were up.

About 1 o'clock, Wednesday morning, the Bridgton postmaster was awakened by some one tearing off the door casing of the office. He arose and they fled. Later, the station agent discovered that strangers were in the depot and exchanged shots with them, but the burglars fled. They had gotten a few dollars out of the money drawer and blown open the safe but they were driven away before examining its contents.

Hebron Academy Notes.

In spite of the rain, Saturday, the Norway High School boys met the Hebron second eleven on the latter's campus. The rain caused many fumbles, and made it very disagreeable for playing. The Hebron team although smaller than Norway easily outplayed them and showed more snap, but the game was rather slow on both sides.

The Hebron captain won the toss, and Norway kicked off. Hebron began to rapidly push the ball down the field, but lost it on a fumble. However, C. Leighton, Hebron r. h. b. stole it on Norway's first play. Hebron soon scored a touchdown, but failed to kick the goal. Score, Hebron 4, Norway 0.

After the next kick off little progress was made either way. Norway began to put up a better game, but time was soon called.

In the last half Hebron kicked to Norway, but the ball was downed as soon as caught, with no gain, and after a series of changes, Hebron captured it and soon rushed it over the line. A. Leighton kicked a most difficult goal. Hebron 10, Norway 0.

Norway then kicked to Hebron, who made large gains. C. Leighton was injured and obliged to retire; his brother took the position and in the first play succeeded in playing the ball over the line. As the touch down was made far to one side, Hebron punted for a position, but failed to kick the goal. Hebron 14, Norway 0. Norway once more kicked to Hebron, but time was soon called with the ball in the center of the field. Final score, Hebron 14, Norway 0. The line-up was as follows:

Norway.	Hebron.
Chase, r. t.	Nelson, l. t.
Whitman, r. g.	Barrett, l. g.
Sawyer, c.	Newman, c.
Grey, l. g.	Bryant, r. g.
Robinson, l. t.	Philbrick, r. t.
Cullinan, q. b.	Burrows, q. b.
Harriman, r. hb.	C. Leighton, H. Leighton, l. hb.
Wiley, l. hb.	Rundlett, r. hb.
Lafarrer, f. b.	Webb, f. b.

Time, fifteen minute halves. Small, referee; Thompson, umpire; Foster, linesman.

As soon as the first eleven could get on their suits, they lined up against the Bowdoin Sophomores. It was a closely contested game. The Bowdoins succeeded in scoring in the first half, and kicked the goal. In the second half, Hebron lined up with a determination to score, which was done, but in punting for a position to kick the goal the ball was dropped. Score, Bowdoin 6, Hebron 4. The game finished with the ball in the centre of the field.

The boys did so well, that a social was granted by Prof. Sargent, and the Bowdoin boys were induced to stay until Sunday morning. Next Saturday a game will be played between the Nichols Latin School team and the first eleven. An exciting game is expected.

The Y. W. C. A. will give an entertainment next Friday evening.

The Olio Club.

The Olio club is probably the only woman's club gifted with a "yell." It is a name which lends itself readily to oral demonstration—"Oh-oli-o-li-o" or something like that. Yes, depend upon it, the Olio club is one which is bound to make a noise and a stir in the world. It is progressive, energetic and full of righteous aims. The latest achievement of the Olio is a summer clubhouse. The idea was projected at a recent "scream" meeting of this go ahead club, and there and then the amount of money necessary to rent a clubhouse for all summer was unhesitatingly subscribed. That was Olio club all over—doing what it had to do both well and quickly.

So the summer club station is now in full blast. It has 22 rooms and is situated at Lake Geneva, that idyllic summer place of Wisconsin. And the clubhouse is ideal to match. At first blush of the project it was suggested that the club members who took turns in sojourning there should also take care of the house. But a sensible woman threw her whole energy into upsetting this idea. "Go there to rest," she said, "and cumber yourself with housework, and in a week your temper will be ruined, and you will be ready to claw and to scratch."

So when the ladies of first occupancy undertook to furnish their rooms they also furnished the place with cook and second girl and janitor. Several of the ladies took their own horses and carriages thither, and there are three boats belonging to the place, to say nothing of a piano, though that does seem a little irrelevant.

The place is called "Sans Souci," and the title fits. Each lady furnishes her own room, so it is deliciously like a camp out affair. Mrs. J. W. Thomas and Mrs. Mitchell stand at the head of the innovation, and members visit there in turn, taking care to give notice sufficiently far ahead.—Chicago Post.

Oxford County Veterans.

Camp Fire at South Paris.

South Paris village presented an animated spectacle, Nov. 7th, for the Grand Army Posts of Oxford County were there as the guests of William K. Kimball Post. The streets were filled with fine looking veterans neatly dressed in blue. The following Posts were represented by the G. A. R. and W. R. C.: Harry Rust Post of Norway, Dr. S. A. Bennett, commander; T. A. Roberts Post of Oxford, A. J. Holden, commander; Fessenden Post of Buckfield, W. F. Chase, commander. Whitman Post of Bryant's Pond, C. B. Bessey, commander; Barrows Post of West Sumner, J. A. Noyes, commander.

Among the prominent Grand Army men who were present were: From Harry Rust Post, Norway, E. H. Brown, Ansel Bean, L. I. Bartlett, W. F. Cox, W. S. Cordwell, A. F. Noyes, Jason F. Rowe, C. S. Tucker, S. H. LeGrow, John A. Keene, James Crockett, L. F. Titcomb, A. I. Nevers, C. S. Penley, L. D. Randall, F. M. Noble, John Caverly, A. J. Crooker, G. A. Haskell, Hudson Knight, S. F. Ballard, C. C. Hussey, Harrison Noble, W. F. Atkins, F. E. Shaw; from South Paris, Capt. G. C. Pratt, Hon. Geo. A. Wilson, Franklin Maxim, Greenfield Stuart, Rev. S. D. Brown, O. G. Curtis, J. J. Monk, Rawson Holman, C. H. George, E. I. Spofford, Dr. Isaac Rounds, L. S. Swan, Ethan Willis, J. F. Plummer, Chandler Swift, Emery Lowell, Nathaniel Young, A. F. Ellingwood, W. S. Starbird, C. S. Richardson, George P. Tucker, John Pierce, W. L. Grey, C. T. Buck, L. L. Carter; from Oxford, Freeman Andrews, Cyrus Wardwell, S. P. Stuart, Charles W. Sanborn, N. G. Frost, George H. Knight, Almon L. Crooker, Charles Smith, Cyrus Chaplin, Stephen Robinson, Eliab Averill, David Morse, Davis B. Wood, Trueman Stone, Wallace Denning, Nelson Denning, Daniel Whitehouse, Franklin Smith; from Buckfield, Henry D. Irish, B. F. Lawrence, C. H. Prince, J. F. Packard, S. E. Murdock, Wallace Tuttle, A. A. Conant, D. R. Jack, Gideon Fletcher, J. A. Warren, S. F. Holmes; E. A. Whitman of Bryant's Pond, Henry H. Maxim and Joseph A. Noyes of Sumner, and H. D. Littlefield of Boston.

The oldest veteran present was Capt. A. F. Noyes, Past Commander of Harry Rust Post, who is 83 years old. He served in the 14th, the 23d and the 33d Maine regiments with honor and is still a well preserved, active man.

The William K. Kimball Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. William M. Shaw president, prepared bountiful collations for the veterans present, served in G. A. R. Hall. The afternoon passed in an enjoyable camp fire at which many a veteran recounted stirring tales of army life and adventure.

Harry Rust, W. R. C., Mary J. Gordon president, was represent d by some over twenty of its members.

Address of welcome by Comrade G. A. Wilson of Kimball Post. Dept. Commander Wm. H. Green of Portland was present and had some very good words of encouragement and council for the veterans of the G. A. R., and gave a pleasing account of his reception at the National Encampment at Louisville, Ky., among those who once were bitter enemies, but are now intensely loyal to the Union and flag.

The afternoon speaking by the veterans was interspersed with songs and declamations until nearly four o'clock, the closing hour.

Look out for colds at this season. Keep yourself well and strong by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great tonic and blood purifier.

A Good Thing and Nothing to Pay.

Just see what Dr. Greene offers to do for all weak and suffering people. He is the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. His unparalleled offer to consult with anyone, free of charge, by letter correspondence, is doing wonderful good. If you have any complaint which you do not throughly understand, and which you would like cured, write the Doctor a letter stating just now you feel and what symptoms trouble you. He will answer it, giving a complete description of your case, explaining the meaning of every symptom, and telling how you can surely get well and strong. He gives most careful attention to each letter, and explains your case so thoroughly that you understand exactly what ails you. All this costs you nothing, you have no Doctor's fees to pay, and you don't have to leave your home. The Doctor makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and they nearly always get well. He is the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Write to him at his office, 34 temple Place, Boston, Mass. and you will undoubtedly be made strong and well.

Children Cry for

ALL AT SEA

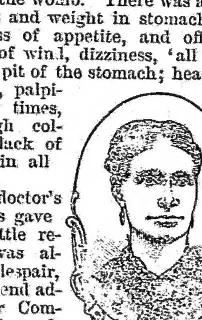
But Finally Rescued from Danger. Result of Taking a Friend's Advice.

There are thousands of women to-day entirely at sea, so to speak, as far as their ailments are concerned.

They are overtaken by some female complaint, and send for their doctor in all haste. He usually tries this and that without success; he is all at sea, and his poor patient is with him. Suddenly, a lady friend tells the sufferer to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because it has cured her.

The following letter shows the result of that trial, and is a sample of thousands of similar cases happening daily.

"I had been very sick for a long time; doctored with many prominent physicians. They pronounced my case dyspepsia, and said there was a tendency to cancer of the womb. There was a sense of fulness and weight in stomach after meals, loss of appetite, and offensive belching of wind, dizziness, 'all gone' feeling in pit of the stomach; headache, heartburn, palpitation at times, urine high colored. A lack of interest in all things.



"The doctor's medicines gave me but little relief. I was almost in despair, when a friend advised your Compound. I took it, and am now perfectly well. I can recommend it to all women. A number of my friends and neighbors have taken it on my recommendation, and I have always found relief."—MRS. JAMES CRANKSHAW, Frankford, Pa.

A LIFE SAVED.

A Return to Happiness and Health After Months of Weary Pain—Few People Realize What the Pangs of Dyspepsia Signify.

There are very few of the thousands of dyspeptics who realize exactly the condition of their systems. They experience pain, sleeplessness, loss of flesh, extreme irritability, and resort to anything that will give them temporary relief until the day which inevitably comes when they succumb to this dread malady. In case of dyspepsia, the stomach becoming irritated ceases to perform its natural functions, the food is not digested and thus the nourishment which should be taken from that which we eat fails to be distributed throughout the body, for the purpose of creating new tissue. The blood becomes impoverished and the patient continually losing flesh soon reaches the state where gastric ulcers are formed, which increase the suffering of the victim. If death does not soon result from a state of collapse due to an inability to obtain nourishment, the outcome will be an internal hemorrhage due to the perforation of one of the ulcers. But there is no need for any one to experience such an end, or in fact, to suffer at all the pangs of indigestion. Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, the greatest of all remedies for the liver, kidneys, stomach and blood, is especially beneficial in this trouble. Thousands attest its merits, among whom is Mr. F. E. Nelson, of Portland Maine. He writes as follows:

F. E. NELSON.

KICKAPOO INDIAN MEDICINE CO.,

Gentlemen,—"Some five or six years ago I had a severe attack of indigestion, and for over a year could eat only with great distress. A friend induced me to try your Indian Sagwa, and the first bottle gave me great relief. I took about two and a half bottles, and think I am safe in saying they worked a complete cure, for I have been able, and do eat anything I want without experiencing any trouble whatever."

Yours very truly,
F. E. NELSON.

If others would but follow Mr. Nelson's example and take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa at the first signs of indigestion, chronic dyspepsia would be unknown, as well as many of the other terrible diseases of the great vital organs that bring untimely death to so many every year.

Cyrus Cobb and the "S. R. T." Society.

The last ADVERTISER contained an article from the Boston Transcript written by Cyrus Cobb, one of the twin Cobbs of the Norway Liberal Institute in the Forties. He speaks of Artemus Ward, of his brother Cyrus, of the Druelaian Society, an organization of the students for public debate; also of the S. R. T. Society, a secret club for private debate. I wonder the jolly fellow should have forgotten, even during the lapse of nearly fifty years, what lay hidden beneath the letters "S. R. T." He and his brother Darius made so large a part of that society, ready for discussion, dissertation, declamation, criticism, in fact anything for which the presiding officer, at any time, saw fit to ask, so many times, without once failing to respond, that I had supposed they would always remember. "Sub Rosa Tenemus"—under the Rose privately. How is that Cyrus? Outsiders—students not permitted to enter, discussed a new explanation of the strange letters, about every day. But I think our secret was well kept.

Only those were asked to join who would promise to be ready, on all occasions, to respond to appointed parts and special calls. No excuse was permitted. The number must stand upon his feet and do his best. It was a wonderful help to us in the public debate.

"Cyrus and Darius" were easily among those who were the most ready to talk upon any subject that came before us. They had the advantage over the rest of us in this, that there were two of them, and if Cyrus was called to open the discussion, or to reply, and they thought Darius could do the work better, he would respond, and not one of us could tell who was talking. They played with our ignorance in that whimsical way many times.

Do you remember, Cyrus, the evening we held a Congress and you (or your brother) acted the part of the northern Blusterer and Chas. F. Brown (poor Artemus) took the part of the southern Fire-eater. How you commenced in a quiet way, each responding readily and rapidly in ten minute speeches. Soon the excitement commenced and the language became heavy with expletives. Then both were talking at once, arms were flung in the air, threats were made, steps were taken towards each other, voices became loud, vociferous, clamerous to be heard. You (or your brother) advanced with an enormous pen and pen-holder three feet in length, Charles with a cane (a la Butler) with flashing eyes and disheveled hair, each intent upon annihilating the other, when friends interposed, and after most strenuous efforts, prevented the effusion of blood. It seemed for a few moments as though Washington had come down to Norway.

How To Prevent Croup.

SOME READING THAT WILL PROVE INTERESTING TO YOUNG MOTHERS. HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THE DISEASE.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Noyes Drug Store. 44-48

Norway in the Forties. No. 216.

Of Nathaniel Young an Immigrant of 1798.

EIGHTH PAPER.

Amos Young (4) was of medium height, solidly built, steady, industrious, as straight as an arrow in his prime, was a good talker and like the rest of the family, though well grounded in his opinions, was liberal in his religious and political views. He was of a strong, nervous temperament, quick in his movements, inclined to see the pleasant side of life, and altogether a good citizen and neighbor. He was called Capt. Amos. He held that position in the old militia.

They have nine children, all born on the Young Hill:

1. First of Amos (4) Ann Haney (5) b. April 23, 1814, m. Dec. 12, 1831, John Bird, a farmer on Bird Hill in Bethel, where their children were born and where she d. March 3, 1844. Four years after his wife's death he moved to Norway, and in 1867 to Bridgton, where he d. Oct. 12, 1869. He was b. in Norway, Sept. 6, 1807.

Ann Haney (Young) Bird (5) has four children:

First, Eliza Ann (6) b. Jan. 10, 1833, d. in Norway, Aug. 25, 1850, at the age of seventeen years.

Second, John Madison (6) b. Dec. 25, 1836, m. 1st, May 10, 1864, Jenett Kittridge Jackson, who d. in Paris, April, 1869. They have one child, 1st of John Madison, Fred Jackson Bird (7) b. in Paris, Jan'y 4, 1869. Fred Jackson m. Sept. 28, 1893, Carrie E. Briggs of West Paris. They reside in Worcester, Mass.

Joh Madison Bird (6) m. 2d, Dec. 24, 1869, Rachel Monroe, who d. in Boston in Nov. 1878, and is buried in Minot, Me. They have one child, 2d of John Madison, Ella Winslow Bird (7) b. Nov. 17, 1870 m. in May, 1886, Francis Albert Cummings of Norway. In 1893, they moved to Boston, where they now reside. They have one child, Ida May Cummings (8) b. in Norway, Sept. 29, 1888.

John Madison Bird (6) m. 3d, Oct. 22, 1879, Margaret Agnes Holden. By third wife he has three children:

3d of John M. Bird, Annie Laurie (7) b. at Snow's Falls, Paris, Feb'y 23, 1881. They moved to South Paris in 1882.

4th of John M. Bird, May Wheeler (7) b. in South Paris, Feb'y 17, 1885. They soon moved to Boston, then to Narraganset Pier, R. I. They have residence now in Boston.

5th of John M. Bird, John Thomas (7) b. at Narraganset Pier, Nov. 11, 1890.

Third of Ann Haney (Young) Bird (5) Amos Ambrose (6) b. June 30, 1840, d. Sept. 30, 1842, in Bethel.

Fourth, Angerone Adelaide (6) b. Feb. 18, 1844, m. Nov. 23, 1862, Cyrus Hamlin Witt. Their residence was on a farm up Pleasant Street at the old Witt homestead, forty rods or so north of her great grandfather's (Nathaniel's) first cabin in the wilderness. In 1890 they moved to Worcester, where they now reside.

Angerone A. (Bird) Witt (6) has one child, Annie Gertrude (7) b. May 19, 1863. She graduated from Norway High School in 1881 and was a successful teacher in Norway in the eighties. She m. Dec. 3, 1888, John Hartwell Ramsdell of Worcester, Mass. They have three children:

A. Arthur Witt (8) b. Sept. 13, 1889.
B. Floyd Abner (8) b. Sept. 25, 1890.

Eighth, Ida Emmagene (6) b. March 4, 1852, m. Dec. 24, 1870, Clement P. Riggs, residence North Bridgton.

Ninth and last of Eliza (Young) Bird, Eliza Gertrude (6) b. Nov. 10, 1854, m. Sept. 18, 1878, Woodman H. Charles of North Fryeburg. They have two children both b. in North Fryeburg:

1st, Iva Bird (7) b. Sept. 25, 1880.
2d, Ida Myrtle (7) b. Dec. 12, 1885.

3. Third of Amos Young (4) Leonard (5) b. April 14, 1817, m. March 13, 1843, Eliza T. Curtis of Woodstock. They were m. by Elder Ford at her father's. She is a sister to Adoniam Curtis, who, as we shall see later, m. Leonard's sister Jennett. Another case of exchange of sisters.

In the spring of 1836, when nineteen years old, Leonard left his father's house on the brow of the great Young hill and went to Bookline, near Boston, and worked on a farm during the season, returning to his father's in the fall. The next spring he went to Falmouth Foreside, where he worked for two years for two men, one of them a "sea captain," who was then making his fortune at sea.

Here the Oxford County farmer boy first saw the stately ships coming and going, making and leaving the port of Portland, bringing the teas of China and the spices of the tropic isles, and bearing away to distant lands the products of the fields and forests of Maine. Few steamers were sailing the seas in those days and no railroad engines shrieked their defiance to the "coach and four" as it plodded its dusty way through the land.

In 1839, he assisted a widow Millett in Norway in farm work and after that for three and a half years was with a Mr. Morrell in Westbrook. During all these years his extra funds, though small in amount, were carefully saved and laid by for future use.

It seems there was a young lady in the case during all these busy years, and now after serving seven years, the regulation Bible time for a wife, they thought it well to be married. So he went to her father's house in March 1843, where they were married and where he remained one year, caring for the farm at the halves.

In the mean time he had purchased a fine farm in Paris, a little to the left of High Street, some three miles towards West Paris. The house is two stories and stands well up on high land, giving a fine southerly view. He was a safe, careful, industrious farmer in that Paris country just thirty years, when he sold out in 1874 and was in Hartland awhile. On the very last day of that year he settled in Woodfords, a pleasant country just out of Portland, where his home was for twenty years more, or until 1894, and where he celebrated his Golden Wedding.

In the early eighties he had a partial shock of paralysis, from which he scarcely expects to fully recover in this world. He and his good wife, Eliza, have now a pleasant home with their only daughter, Mrs. Lorenda Haskell at 148 College Avenue, Waterville. They are quite sure their journeys are all finished here, and they wait with patience and great hope as they near their four score years, the coming of the word from the Great Master declaring their labors all completed in this world.

"Come down, ye graybeard mariners
Unto the glorious shore,
The morning winds are up—the gods
Bid us to dream no more.

"Come tell us whither ye must sail,
What perils there may be,
Before we take our lives in hand
And venture out to sea!

"Hail and farewell, oh voyagers!
Yourselves must read the waves!
What we have learned of sun and storm
Lies with us in our graves.

"What we have learned of sun and storm
Is ours alone to know,—
The winds are blowing out to sea
Take up your lives and go!

"They sat in peace in the sunshine
Till the day was almost done,
And then at its close an angel
Stole over the threshold stone.

"Like a bridal pair they traversed
The unseen, mystical road
That leads to the beautiful city,
Whose builder and maker is God."

Leonard Young is of a fair average stature, thoughtful, considerate of others, well-informed in the affairs of the world, never idle when he can labor, moderate in his political and religious views and always a good citizen.

Leonard Young (5) has three children; First, Lorenda Curtis (6) b. in Woodstock, Dec. 24, 1843, m. Sept. 7, 1865, in Paris, Edwin N. Haskell. He was b. in Hartland, March 31, 1841. He is a commercial traveler. They have two children:

1st, Harry Clinton (7) b. in Paris, June 28, 1867. He is a grocer in Waterville. He m. Alice E. Vigue, June 28, 1893.

2d, Carl Nelson (7) b. in Hartland, May 5, 1876.

Second of Leonard (5) Leonard Clinton (6) b. in Paris, May 21, 1847, m. in Sangerville, May 24, 1875, Lucy Shaw. She was b. April 8, 1854. They have one child: Edward Clinton (7) b. June 28, 1883, in Deering, Me. He is a merchant tailor in Portland.

Third of Leonard (5) Edward Levett (6) b. in Paris, March 4, 1849, d. there Aug. 20, 1857, aged 8 y. 5 m. 16 d.

Nov. 1895.

No mystery about it. When the Shakers offered some time ago to give away a bottle of their Digestive Cordial to any one who might call at their New York office, there was a great rush and a great many people thought they were crazy.

Subsequent events prove it to have been a very clever advertising transaction, for although they gave away thousands of bottles, it was in the end profitable; nearly every one that took a free bottle came back for more and paid for it with pleasure, saying they had derived better results from its use than from any other medicine they had ever used.

There is nothing so uniformly successful in the treatment of stomach troubles as the Shaker Digestive Cordial, and what is better than all, it relieves at once.

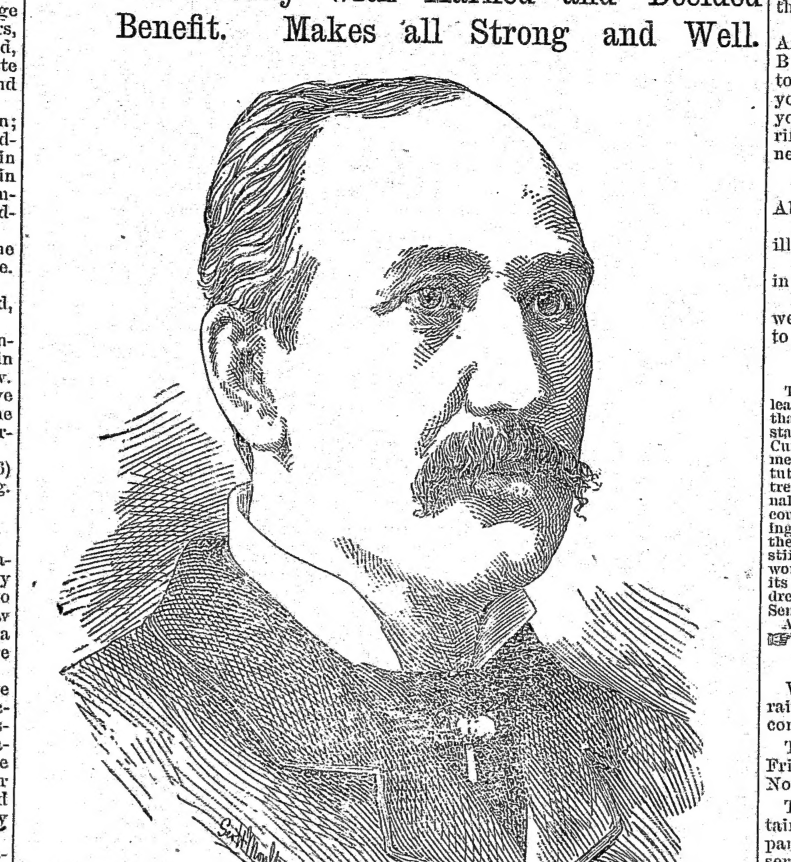
THE MAYOR'S ADVICE.

Mayor Wing of Montpelier, Vt., Heartily Endorses Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Mayor Wing Used Dr. Greene's Nervura in His Family with Marked and Decided Benefit. Makes all Strong and Well.



HON. GEORGE W. WING, MAYOR OF MONTPELIER, VT.

Hon. George W. Wing, Mayor of the Capital City of Vermont, is a man of high eminence. A distinguished lawyer he has served his state in many high offices, having been Deputy Secretary of State, occupied a position in the State Treasury, was postmaster of Montpelier, and was elected to the state Legislature in 1882. Owing to his great popularity, he had the distinguished honor to be elected Mayor of Montpélier, a position he now fills with illustrious success.

When such a man, occupying so high a position in community, endorses the great curative powers and recomends the sick and suffering to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, no one will hesitate for a moment to use this grand medical discovery this great restorer of health and strength.

Mayor Wing says: "I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in my family, with marked and decided benefit.

"Especially has it been useful in insomnia, arising from indigestion and its attendant evils. I think well of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and freely grant premission to use this letter in advertising it."

You who suffer from nervousness, nervous weakness, the exhaustion of nervous debility, the tired condition attendant upon poor blood and low vitality, the nerve-wearing pain of neuralgia or rheumatism, who pass sleepless or restless nights and wake mornings tired and unfreshed, with dull-feeling head, bad taste in the mouth, and go to your occupation languid, nerveless, dispirited, without your old-time energy and ambition, do not lose a moment in securing this grand strengthener and invigorator, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and it will surely make you well.

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene of 34 Temple Place, Boston Mass. He has the largest practise in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by any one, at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

ANDOVOER.

We are all interested in having the railroad through Andover. It cannot come too soon.

The Village High School closed up Friday, to commence again on Monday, Nov. 18.

The Congregational Circle was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Norcross at the parsonage on Wednesday. Dinner was served to about twenty of the older members who were unable to be present in the evening. Later on the house was well filled by all ages. Supper at 8.30, dispersing at 10 in the evening. Mr. Norcross and his estimable wife known how to entertain well.

L. D. Hanson is in quite poor health.

Elbridge Poor is confined to the house by rheumatism.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Noyes Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Uncle E. B. Humphrey of West Paris called on us the other morning. He is canvassing for the Ladies' Home Journal, Phila., and has a large list of subscribers in this vicinity. We were surprised when he told us that he would be 80 years old next month. Surely he looks ten years younger. He says the use of "Oxine" is accountable for the renewing of his youth.

Johnson's ORIGINATED 1810. ANODYNE LINIMENT

It quickly relieves, soothes, heals and cures. Its special province being the treatment of inflammation, whether internal or external. Inflammation is an unsound condition of any part of the body, manifested outwardly by redness and swelling attended with heat and pain manifested inwardly by congestion of the blood vessels with obstructions of the blood current and growth of unsound tissue, causing pain and inflammatory diseases. In 1810 Dr. A. Johnson, Family Physician, invented this marvelous remedy. It has for more than ... years satisfied generation after generation. It is used by surgeons and physicians everywhere. It is the Universal Household Remedy. Dropped on sugar suffering children love it. Its electric energy everlastingly eradicates inflammation, without irritation. It is unlike any other. It is superior to any other. Nothing on earth will cure a severe cold as quickly.

We use Johnson's Liniment for a nasal wash for catarrh. We are delighted with it. We had tried almost everything recommended for catarrh, but find Johnson's Anodyne Liniment far superior to any. I use it as you direct. J. E. WHIPPLE, South Windham, Vt.

The following is an unsolicited letter from the optician who grinds lenses for Dr. Richards.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 26, 1895.

Dr. Samuel Richards, South Paris, Maine.

DEAR DR. RICHARDS:—As my memory serves me, it is now five years since you finished the first optical course with the Philadelphia Optical College, an institution which I was president of at that time. And from that time to this I have noticed the presciptions which you have sent in from time to time, and could not help appreciating the advance you have made as a refractionist. Your prescriptions truly show great care and correctness, and must be very satisfactory to your patients. It must be gratifying to the people in your locality to have you as an optician in their midst.

Yours respectfully, D. V. BROWN.

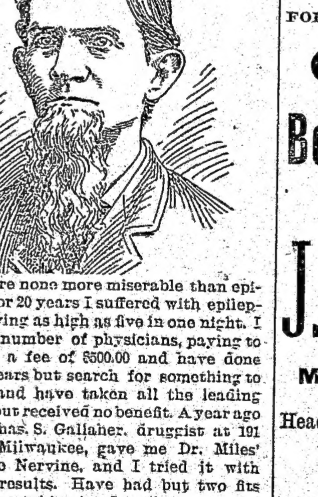
Epilepsy 20 Years. Cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

A few years ago, Mr. L. W. Gallaher, was an extensive, successful expert manufacturer of lumber products. Attacked with epilepsy, he was obliged to give up his business. The attacks came upon him most inopportunely. One time falling from a carriage, at another down stairs, and often in the street. Once he fell down a shaft in the mill, his injuries nearly proving fatal. Mr. Gallaher writes from Milwaukee, Feb. 16, '95.



"There are none more miserable than epileptics. For 20 years I suffered with epileptic fits, having as high as five in one night. I tried any number of physicians, paying to one alone, a fee of $500.00 and have done little for years but search for something to help me, and have taken all the leading remedies, but received no benefit. A year ago my son, Chas. S. Gallaher, druggist at 191 Reed St., Milwaukee, gave me Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I tried it with gratifying results. Have had but two fits since I began taking it. I am better now in every way than I have been in 20 years."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by druggists on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit or price refunded. Book on the Heart and Nerves, free. Address,

WEST BETHEL.

We feel pleased to note a very successful school in an adjoining town as reported to us by a member of the school committee of that town. This school is being taught by Will Fox of Lovell, who is very earnest in his work and is master of his situation. He seems interested for the advancement of his pupils and as the committee remarked "We are having a good school." Mr. Fox taught in the same town two years ago but at that time whooping cough was raging in the vicinity and the school was stopped for a short period, and when continued on account of whooping cough several scholars did not attend and at the close of the term there were but few scholars attending but this was no fault of the teacher, who is a fine young man and we are glad to hear him so highly spoken of by the committee. It is the best policy to speak in praise of the teacher in the presence of the scholars but if you can't do that say nothing.

Mrs. Scammon, dressmaker, returned from Boston, Saturday.

Sunday night, Nov. 3d, in the darkness two young people were thrown violently to earth by driving against a post placed in the horse path. It happened thuswise. On a sand flat by the side of a road, unfenced, to avoid the sandy roads, teams have made a track and traveled the same for an indefinite period. On Saturday, Nov. 2d, the owner of the land placed a post deep in the ground, rising about two feet above, in the center of the road claiming that that portion was on his land, hence the accident occurred by the axle striking the post, breaking the crossbar, letting the horse out of the thills and throwing the occupants to the ground. According to tradition, the old blue laws enacted by our forefathers vitiates all claim for damages to parties riding on Sunday, except when going or coming from church, or from urgent necessity. Now the question arises, would it not be well at this late day to revise the old Sunday laws, or else put in force the whole code. In these days when nearly all people, both saint and sinner, ride at their will, then why not give some protection against the obstructions which are liable to be placed on any imaginary lot line. Why not stop all Sunday travel by electing tything men to arrest all men found violating the law or else give people some show of protection? If not, why not?

When I was a boy and studied geography, I was wont to study the features of the different nationalities, such as civilized, half civilized, barbarous, etc., with great interest and with not a small amount of pride, when counting my people as belonging to the first mentioned; but later in life, in view of the many selfish traits which crop out from day to day, I have thought whether or not we might more properly belong to the second class. Why not repeal or enforce to the letter?

NORWAY LAKE.

We dropped into the camp-fire at Paris awhile on Thursday week. Army stories were told over again and when Capt. C. H. Prince of Buckfield arose we were deeply interested to see him and much pleased with his excellent remarks. Thirty-eight years (are we right Charlie?) have been numbered with the past since he taught school in our district and boarded at our father's house and we had not seen him till now, and we think we should have recognized his form and features anywhere. He was captain of a company in one of the Maine regiments in the war against secession; went to Georgia after the war and was sent to Congress and for some years was postmaster in a southern city.

There seems to exist between young Haskell and Pitts in the recent shooting affair great attachment for each other. As we gathered the items very carefully for the press, saying that Haskell was wounded by his own hand as was given us definitely. After Haskell was considered out of danger, the truth came out stating that Haskell was accidentally shot by Pitts, a cousin of his. As was reported at first, Haskell shot at a partridge and started in pursuit, when a bird or squirrel was near Fred Pitts and he shot at it, when to his greatest horror he found that Haskell was in range of the whole charge, which entered his body, with same result as was given in last week's paper. Haskell of course expected to die and requested Pitts to go for assistance but to never divulge the facts of the shooting affair in case he died. Hence the origin of the story as first reported.

Only think of it! We unhesitatingly say that the ADVERTISER has a very large circulation, 2,350 copies each week. This is what the ADVERTISER man says and we believe it, because we are out of the county and very many are taken even in this little place, and we believe could they be placed on sale with us that many more would be sold. We doubt if another similarly situated local paper in the State can show this average. It only takes one evening to look our paper through and then you are posted on nearly all local matter, sales, advertisements of all kinds, from every town in the county. This will convince you that the paper is well worth the price asked. Try it for three months at $1.50 per year. The paper will be discontinued at the expiration of the time if you say so.
